

Calvary Chapel Santa Cruz
Statement of Educational Objectives

Calvary Chapel Santa Cruz is a non-stock, non-profit corporation chartered under the laws of the State of California, and is tax-exempt pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Calvary Chapel Santa Cruz operates a church and a Bible College extension campus in Santa Cruz, CA, ministering to and educating approximately 600 adults and 175 students weekly with moral and religious teaching. In addition to providing religious teaching to school-age children, college students, and adults, Calvary Chapel Santa Cruz's educational and moral teachings address community and adult social problems such as divorce, mental illness, child abuse, teen pregnancy, alcoholism and drug abuse. The pastoral staff of Calvary Chapel Santa Cruz also provides Biblical counseling free-of-charge on a variety of issues for both those attending the church as well as members of the community.

Calvary Chapel Santa Cruz's objective in acquiring the Santa Cruz, California station is to teach the Gospel of Jesus Christ and thereby spread redemption, hope and social progress in all areas outlined above. A radio stations will expand the reach of our educational programs, particularly those geared to adults, to Santa Cruz and the surrounding area.

Using radio will permit Calvary Chapel Santa Cruz to advance its objectives by putting to work its considerable educational talents and capabilities to address moral and religious subjects outside the standard classroom setting, and otherwise on a far broader scale. In addition, it will enhance our ability to meet the objective not only of religious and spiritual education, but also of providing fellowship and outlets for both adults and youth, and the strengthening of family and social values.

It will be our policy to provide the highest quality programming, stressing spiritual and moral values. Programs and messages will be responsive to the problems, needs, and interests of the community of license and service area. Our programming will be in good taste and suitable for listeners of all ages. All programming will help fulfill our educational objectives, and radio station operations will be conducted on a non-commercial basis.
